Known Here.

James Beazley died in Lincoln county, January 18th, 1896, aged about 60 years. Buried at Lancaster. His wife was Miss Sallie Grimes, of Athens, Fayette county. He and wife had relatives in this county.

Dr. Jasper.

Recently this young physician has located in Richmond and opened an office in Collins building. He is a graduate of one of the best medical schools and has of late taken a post-graduate course. His experience covers nine years, the latter part of which time was spent in Bloomington, Illinois.

Didn't Come to Pass.

Wednesday's CLIMAX announced through its Waco correspondent that Miss Etta Chambers, daughter of Squire H. Clay Chambers, of College Hill, would on Thursday marry Mr. William Griffith. The time came but Griffith did not. The bride was not grievously disappointed, as she converted the wedding supper into a party supper, and seemed as gay as the guests of the company. She is evidently fortunate in not becoming the wife of such an uncertain quantity.

Railroad Valuation.

Andior Stone has forwarded to County Clerk White the valuation of railroads in Madison county for taxation, as follows: L. & N. (K. C. Division) from Kentucky River to Boone's Gap, 27.91 miles, $28,518. Fort Lick to Point Lick, 11.78 miles, $147,646. R. & N. L. & B., 28 miles, $194,010.

Richmond has 46 miles and Berea .77 miles of L. & N., but Richmond's net depot and other property puts the valuation higher, $38,032; the Berea, $7,573. Berea has more land belonging to the railroad than has Richmond.

"Lord Grand High Everything Else."

At last meeting of the City Council, C. S. Powell was elected Chief of Fire Department. He was already President of the Water & Light Co., of the Telephone Co., of the Powell-Turner Insurance aggregation, and many other concerns of equal weight and importance.

But as to the Fire Department, you can safely hypothecate your last summer's socks and bet the proceeds thereof that the indomitable giving and countermanding of orders by everybody at a fire would be tolerated for even a brief moment. Somebody will get knocked down, and then the firemen will proceed with their work.

Death From Pure Carelessness.

Henry Grady, one of the most prominent men of Woodford county, and a model man in every way, was killed by a train near Versailles, one day last week. He was with a friend from Danville in a buggy driving out to his farm. He took no notice of the railroad crossing, although it was in plain view, and there was nothing to keep him from seeing the approaching train. Besides it was regular train time. More than that, some parties in a vehicle were standing on the pike, just across the railroad, waiting for the approaching train to pass, and tried to stop him, by calling to him, but he neither heard nor looked. Just as the horse got on the track, Mr. Grady saw the train, then within a few steps of him. He hit the horse which sprang forward, pulling the buggy on the track just in time to catch the engine square on the side of the buggy. The buggy was torn to pieces, the Danville fireman painfully hurt, and Mr. Grady instantly killed. Pure carelessness causes many times more deaths than pure accident.

30 Prisoners 30.

Jailer Wages has thirty prisoners. Of these, 13 are for felony. Some crupshooters are among the others.

May Die.

Mr. Evans, of Danville, hurt when Mr. Grady was killed at Versailles, is thought to be dying. He is at Versailles.

Doing Well.

Dr. Bender is well located in room No. 4 at Hotel Glyndon and says he is doing well. His proposed painless extraction of teeth is bringing in the people.

New Dressmakers.

The Misses Leavell, of Lexington, will open a fashionable dressmaking establishment in this place. They come highly recommended in their line by Chinn & Todd and Mrs. Curry, in whose employment they have been.

Look at these Prices.

CLIMAX and Cincinnati Weekly Enquirer, one year, $1.35.

CLIMAX and weekly Courier-Journal, one year, $1.50.

CLIMAX and a Week-Week New York World, one year, $1.70.

CLIMAX and any other newspaper or magazine cheaper than you can possibly get from the publishers.

Time Moved Up Nineteen Minutes.

The morning train, North, changed time Sunday morning, passing Richmond 19 minutes earlier than usual. The time is now 3:19, instead of 3:38 as heretofore. Keep this in mind, or you'll get left.

Horse Sale.

Monahs, 2:11, was bought by R. P. Fox at the Auctioneer & Real Estate, Lexington, for $1,300. Sired by Eagle Bird, dam Lady Maid, 2:18. The horse was a bargain.

At the Woodward & Shanklin sale four days, 321 horses sold for $43,300, and was regarded as a good sale.

Bible Sent to Jail.

Did anybody ever hear of such a thing before? No. Well, this unheard-of performance was performed here in Richmond yesterday. It was this way, Mr. George W. Pate, near Speedwell, has a handsome morocco back family Bible. It had come loose in the back. He sent it to the CLIMAX office for repairs. When done, we sent it over to his daughter, Mrs. Wagers, wife of the jailer.

"In Old Madrid."

White & Bush promise that in the production of "Old Madrid" on next Monday evening, the theatre goes with witless one of the best comedies that any age or literature has produced. It is modern, bright, sparkling and witty. Its plot is one of the most ingenious and original. It fun bubbles up spontaneously. These are never strained but grow naturally out of the story and are always vivid and lifelike.

That New Train.

Charley Burman, the colored genius, who constructed two miniature trains, a freight and passenger, last summer, has completed an improved locomotive, tender and car. They are on exhibition at Waller & Nelson's, down on lower Main. All the latest improvements in ventilators, sand boxes, bells and the like are present. The three pieces are nearly six feet long.

Died in St. Louis.

William K. Estill died at the Baptist Sanatorium in St. Louis, Mo., on Wednesday, January 20th, 1896, and was buried at Ellettsville, Howard county, Mo., on the 31st. He had been under treatment of special ists, since July, for nervous prostration. He was 40 years old, a son of J. R. Estill, and married a daughter of Gen. Richard Gentry, whose wife was a daughter of Col. Nicholas Mitchell, near Speedwell in Madison county. Leaves wife and three children.

Lock No. 7.

The work on lock No. 7, at High Bridge, has already begun in earnest. The side-track leading from the C. & S. has been completed, and the Government loan Gen. Poe, is making regular trips to High Bridge weekly with tools and other supplies to be used in the construction of the lock. Excavations are being made on the Mercer side, where the lock will be located. About the first of March the river will be drained and the dam in place. From two hundred to three hundred men will be employed on the work regularly. This will be a big help to High Bridge as there will be no commissary or boarding house attachments.—Nicholasville Journal.

Nobody But Printers Make Mistakes?

One day last week, Commissioner Scott employed a man to remove his baggage from the car over the river. Several men were sent with ropes, skids, crow-bars and the like to bring the safe. Governor McCreary has a safe in the same office. His name is on the front. T. J. Scott is the name on the other. The men rushed up into the office, grabbed a safe and yanked it down the stairs, across the street and into the court house. Just then the commissioner discovered Governor McCreary's name and called their attention to it. They could but retract their steps and exchange safes. Those men can't understand why printers make mistakes.

A Powerful Gun.

Deputy Sheriff Joe Deatherage was at Berea, one day last week, and was shown a white oak tree, two feet in diameter, with a bullet hole entirely through the center. Merchant Brannaman and Iveryman Parrish said they saw the man fire the shot. One of them was in a position to see the bark fly off the far side of the tree as the bullet emerged. The bullet passed on, went through an iron plank of a stable wall and into the opposite wall, from which it was cut. The bullet was not so much as battered. But it was a steel bullet, about 30 or 32 calibre, and more than half inch long. These are short ones, and such as is used in the German army. It will shoot three miles. It belonged to a detective from Virginia. The detective came out to this county in search of a man who had bought a $200 diamond in Virginia, paid $50 on it and left. He found the man, collected the $150, and $30 for expenses.

A Big Case.

The Asher Lumber Company filed this week a statement of its condition with the clerk as required by law. The capital stock is one million dollars all paid in. They own real estate to the value of $275,940; personal property worth $1,045,428.25; and have $47,042 owing to them. The capital stock is divided into ten thousand shares with the following stockholders: W. R. Burr, 4980 shares; C. W. Burr, 10 shares; M. L. Brabb, 307 shares; R. M. Raudell, 1020 shares; L. G. Chappin, 610 shares; I. H. Gilbert, 180 W. M. Beckner, 210 shares.—Winchester Democrat.

County Judge Burman now has a telephone in his office.

Away On The Wings of Love.

Charles E. Hudson and Bettie R. Martin, elopers from Point Lick, Ky., were married in Jeffersonville yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock by Magistrate J. H. Hulse. They were accompanied by Miss Hattie G. Mitchell, who lives five miles from Richmond, Ky., and who had been visiting Miss Martin.

Mr. Hudson called at Miss Martin's house Wednesday evening and proposed to the young woman to flee with him to the Hoosier Grains. At 11 o'clock she aroused Miss Mitchell, who had retired, and said she was going to her to Jeffersonville. Miss Mitchell announced her readiness and the trio slipped out. Mr. Hudson had a buggy in waiting and the party was quickly on its way to Junction City, twenty-five miles away. The rain was pouring, but a stormy night presented no terrors to the runaways. They reached Louisville yesterday morning and went to the Louisville Hotel and registered.

Miss Martin is a handsome girl, and the daughter of a widow. Her mother was strongly opposed to her marriage. Mr. Hudson is employed by a sewing machine company. The couple expected last night to go to Cincinnati and wait for the marriage to be consummated. Miss Mitchell intended to accompany them—Louisville Times.

Circuit Court.

Circuit Court began Monday with a big docket. The equity docket comprised 215 cases including 43 appearances. The ordinary docket has 120 cases of which 48 are appearances.

Sixteen couples have found marriage to be a failure and want divorces. Of these four couples are white and twelve colored.

Only 29 commonwealth cases are on docket, none of these being of a very serious nature. The whole docket number 364 cases. A number of prisoners have been held over to await the action of the Grand Jury and when all the indictments are returned the number of cases will probably reach 400.

The docket embraces several damage suits. Those of Leslie Pigg and George Collins, against Chief of Police Donohoe and bondsmen, have been mentioned; another suit is that of J. J. Eades and wife against the L. & N. road. One night last October Mrs. Eades alighted from the train at Ford. She alleges that he regular passage was obstructed by the Company's cars and she was obliged to pass around the depot. In the darkness she fell over a pile of lumber which she says was placed there by the Company, and broke her arm. She sues for $2,500.

J. H. Thomson, a colored man of this city, wants the same amount from the same company. About ten days ago, while he was driving a wagon for the Winchester Tin and Stove Co., he alleges he was struck by a car near the depot. His car was split and other injuries were inflicted. He alleges the accident was caused by the carelessness of the men in charge of the train.

The largest suit on the docket is that of the Estill County Deposit Bank against the bondsmen of the late Cashier Joe McDowell which was transferred here from Irvine. Suit is brought for $29,405.55 with $1,000 interest.—Winchester Democrat.

An Ingenious Swindle.

The community is warned to be on the lookout for the woman book agent who calls and leaves a volume for inspection. She doesn't talk you to distraction or bore you to death soliciting you to buy it. Oh! No. She simply leaves the book for you to look over, and says she will call later. This appears to be a very good and businesslike way to proceed, but the next day a man calls and asks if the book has been examined, saying that the lady leaves the book and he does the soliciting. The book is given to him, and a day or two later the woman who left it calls. When she learns that it was given to the man, she resorts to tears, lamentations and sometimes hysterics, saying that he has done it all along the street, that he must have seen her leaving the books, and followed before she had time to get back; that she is very poor and cannot afford to lose the book, but that he had no right to give it to any one but her, and other things equally convincing, until the victim pays for the book.—Nicholasville Journal.

EMBEZZLEMENT.

Ex-Postmaster John Edmiston, of Crab Orchard, was arrested by Deputy U. S. Marshal Stringer Wednesday and taken to a commissioner at London, who held him in $1,000 bond, for trial on the 12th. The editor of this paper has been aware of the embezzlement for several months, but owing to the age of Mr. Edmiston and his family we kept the matter quiet, while at the same time we felt that we were doing the people of this county injustice to keep them uninformed on the subject, since Mr. Edmiston is a member of the fiscal court and has a big vote in the management of the finances of the county. By the papers, which we were shown some time ago by the post-office detective, it was stated that we were doing the people of this county injustice to keep them uninformed on the subject, since Mr. Edmiston is a member of the fiscal court and has a big vote in the management of the finances of the county.
